

AFFILIATIONS - NON-PROFIT, COMMUNITY, CHARITABLE FUNDS

The Healing Silks Company is a creative community experience, comprised with individuals of the entrepreneurial spirit. It has come from an idea, into being with the support and kindness of many family and friends. Modeling this construct of beginning with family and friends, moving into community and then globally, is a desire of our philanthropic support. Thus we choose to magnify the adage: “When every One does a little, we All change a lot.”

KIVA MICROFUNDS – is a California non-profit public benefit corporation, serving fledgling and developing entrepreneurs globally. The Healing Silks Company is akin to the ideals and goals of Kiva in assisting in the supply of microfunding to those families with dreams and goals who by financial institutional standards would be too risky.

HEALING IN PINK – CLICK IT FORWARD – The Healing Silks website www.healingsilks.com has a link to The Healing in Pink Click it Forward program. The program allows an anonymous gift of any item from our Healing Silks “PINK” Collection to be given to a woman who is diagnosed with breast cancer. At present we have two local hospitals in Portland, Oregon, who will begin to receive the donated purchases in May 2008. It is our intention to expand this program to numerous hospitals in the near future. Five percent of these purchases are also directed into the Sisterhood in Pink Fund for distribution to our breast cancer awareness partners.

THE PINKY PROMISE of Chicago, Illinois is in the process of becoming a 501C charitable Becoming a worldwide organization to educate girls and women about early detection of breast cancer, efforts will begin in high schools in the U.S. along with Ghana and Kenya.
